

SAP FOR RETAIL I

Course Version: 062

Prerequisites

Essential

- The following are included in posting TIRT10: E-learning SAP125 SAP
- Navigation 2005, which you must study in your own time before the start
- of course TIRT10

Duration

- 9 days

Audience

- Solution consultants responsible for implementing SAP for Retail.

Software

- ECC 6.0

Content

- Retail Solution Map
- Organizational structure and master data in SAP for Retail
- Maintenance and configuration of vendor and customer master data
- Control options for maintaining sites
- The meaning of the merchandise category and merchandise category hierarchy
- Creating a single and a generic article
- Features of sets, prepacks and displays
- Execution of a retail-specific key process in SAP for Retail: Promotion planning for stores and subsequent logistics processing and merchandise distribution from suppliers to stores over the distribution center
- Planning functions in connection with SAP BI (Business Intelligence):
- Strategic planning, merchandise and store planning, assortment planning, open-to-buy, operative assortment planning and controlling, slowseller management
- Requirements planning and allocation: Allocation tables, SAP F&R (Forecasting and Replenishment), store replenishment and requirements planning for a distribution center
- Purchasing: Procurement of seasonal goods and basic articles, purchase order manager workbench, open-to-buy check
- Logistics: Inventory management, picking, merchandise distribution Multi-channel retailing: SAP Retail Store and other functions for stores
- Processes in connection with a store opening

Notes

- To ensure that you retain the knowledge gained in this course and successfully complete the certification examination at the end of course TIRT20, we recommend that you consolidate the content in your own time after the course.

